

LSS Exec Meeting Tues Feb 10/15

Social

- Exclusion policy – was affecting a particular individual – Rosalyn and Andrea have worked with this person and it is “solved”
- This person is banned from any Friday social
- Can come to semi-formal but will not be served. If any breaches at SF, then no able to come to grad. All parties agreed to this.
- Grad at end of march
- Calgary social
- Toronto social
- Election social
- Trike race social
- Then grad.
- Discussion in regard to writing up an appeals process in regard to the exclusion policy. Some concern about the all or nothing
- Elections week March 4-7. Nominations were the week before. Then elections week Tues. to Friday.

Ombudsperson

- Additional discussion on a written policy in regard to the exclusion policy ensuring procedural fairness and consistency.
- Suggested process – Tertiary compliant process which first goes first to LSS President and the VP Social. Second, to the LSS executive minus the Ombudsperson. Lastly, Ombudsperson.
 - Considerations include harm to reputation of the law school, safety concerns, safety of belongings.

Clubs

- Faculty cup – successful event in regards to participation in the larger school community. Recommends doing it again next year.

Indigenous

- Indigenous week went well
- ILSP student feedback on the 13th regarding gaps in the curriculum

AMS

- Just passed a new Musquem communication policy – it won't affect us very much because we already have a communication policy in place, it is more for the undergrad programs.
- Student court – have a problem and want to pose a question to the student court to review this question – like a reference opinion.
- The question is very challenging

Senate

- Appeals occurring during the reading week and following Mondays

VP Academic

- Academic Experience Survey – we have opportunity to have input. Academic Counsel will be providing incentive prizes to get people to participate.
- We'd like to add some questions to the survey to collect further information in regard to tuition
- Read out a number of questions for us to consider and discuss.
- Group suggested a number of questions
- Kristy will be attending a workshop on course scheduling and giving a plug for keeping law in law.

President

- Covered under elections and exclusion policy considerations.
